

Who Did What? Subject and Predicate

Circle the complete subject and underline the complete predicate.

1 The kids from my class played soccer after lunch.

2 Our new puppy chewed my favorite shoes.

3 My little brother cried during the movie.

4 That giant roller coaster looks scary.

5 The birds in the tree sang beautifully.

6 The teacher with the glasses gave us homework.

7 Our neighbors across the street planted a garden.

8 The delicious chocolate cake disappeared quickly.

9 My friends and I rode our bikes to the park.

10 The man in the red truck waved to us.

11 That funny cartoon made me laugh.

12 The snow on the hill melted in the sun.

Who Did What? Subject and Predicate

Circle the complete subject and underline the complete predicate.

1 The kids from my class played soccer after lunch.

2 Our new puppy chewed my favorite shoes.

3 My little brother cried during the movie.

4 That giant roller coaster looks scary.

5 The birds in the tree sang beautifully.

6 The teacher with the glasses gave us homework.

7 Our neighbors across the street planted a garden.

8 The delicious chocolate cake disappeared quickly.

9 My friends and I rode our bikes to the park.

10 The man in the red truck waved to us.

11 That funny cartoon made me laugh.

12 The snow on the hill melted in the sun.